

1 A. Like that.

2 Q. -- like that, as you threw your hands up?

3 A. No, I had already thrown my hands up and had -- I
4 had my hands up. I threw my hands up when I encountered
5 the silver object, which I didn't know what it was, as I
6 turned back around from talking to Earl Carlton, as I
7 turned back around. I was holding the chair rail, I turned
8 back around, there was this silver object, and I just put
9 my hands up instinctively just as I was -- I was startled,
10 just as a reflex, okay? That's what I did. And then he
11 turned and spun --

12 Q. Uh-huh.

13 A. -- and pulled me over him. And, yes, my arms
14 were over him, but they were just dangling there.

15 Q. He pulled you over him?

16 A. Just as I demonstrated.

17 Q. Where were his arms?

18 A. His arms were down in front of him like that 19 (indicating), something like that.

20 Q. As if he were cradling some object (indicating)?
21 Is that fair to say?

22 A. Right. Right.

23 Q. And with his arms down here, he then pulled you
24 over him?

25 A. He pulled me over with his buttocks -- I was off
